Femtosecond laser assisted cataract surgery: complex cases

Samuel Masket MD
Clinical Professor – UCLA
Los Angeles

Disclosure: Samuel Masket MD
• Consultant Fees – Alcon Laboratories
• Consultant Fees – PowerVision
• Consultant Fees – Ocular Therapeutix
• Consultant Fees – WaveTec
• Royalties – Haag-Streit
• Research Grant – Accutome
• Licensing Agreement – Morcher

When is femto most helpful?
• Compromised Endothelium
• Shallow Anterior Chamber
• Dense Cataract
• Zonulopathy
• Capsule Issues
Weill–Marchesani Syndrome

- Spherophakia – Brachymorphia Syndrome: Rare
- Mesodermal Dysgenesis Syndrome
- Dominant or Recessive Inheritance
- Short stature, short fingers, broad head
- Round lenses with poor zonules
- Prone to pupillary block – iridectomy
- Other forms of glaucoma